CLERK SUPREME COURT

In January 2015, the supreme court established the Iowa Guardianship and Conservatorship Reform Task Force (task force) to review Iowa's guardianship and conservatorship laws and procedures in order to ensure the system is efficient and responsive to the needs of Iowans. The court at that time also appointed the task force steering committee.

The court now appoints Jerry Anderson, Dean of the Drake University Law School in Des Moines, to serve on the task force steering committee. Dean Anderson replaces former dean of the law school Benjamin Ullem.

Dean Anderson's appointment is effective immediately.

Dated this 14th day of July, 2016.
